DEFERRED ITEMS. The oldest stove, probably, in the United States is one which warms the hall of Virginia's capitol in Richmond. It was made in England, and sent to Virginia in 1770, and warmed the House of Burgesses for sixty years before it was removed to its present location, where it has been thirty years.

It may not be generally known, says the Lynchburg Virginian, that there is now a law in force in Virginia, empowering the county courts to levy a tax on all dogs in their respective counties. Such is the case. It was passed by the "restored" Legislature at Wheeling, the 3d of February, 1863.

The Rev. James A. Duncan, D. D., of Richmond, has been invited to deliver, in June next, the annual address before the Washington Society of Washington College, Va., and has signified his acceptance of the invitation. Captain Levin Dukes, a well known resident of Georgetown, and master of the tug-boat Belte Haven, died suddenly on Friday from an attack of heart disease, while aboard his boat. The captain had been for many years employed by the Potomac Tug-boat Company, and was much esteemed.

It is asserted by most of the journals of New York that when Mr. Stevens ironically asserted in the House of Representatives that the report of the President's speech of the 22d February, in which he denounced Mr. Stevens by name, was a hoax, equal to the moon hoax; he really intended that the assertion should be believed in the rural districts of Pennsylvania, and have its effect in the State elections.

Capt. Henry F. Kerney, of the late Confederate army, was arrested on Wednesday last, by Deputy Sheriff Potterfield, upon the charge of an indictment by the Grand Jury of Jefferson county, last July, of allowing his company to take goods from W. B. Cronise's store, in Shepherdstown, during the war. He gave bail for his appearance at Court.
